The Honorable William J. Casey
 Director of Central Intelligence
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Select Committee on Intelligence has received the Guidance on CIA's Domestic and Overseas Activities issued pursuant to Executive Order 12333. Agency personnel have explained the provisions to the Committee's staff and we thank you for this cooperation.

We intend to monitor the implementation of the Guidance as part of the Committee's regular oversight of intelligence activities. Therefore, we request that the Agency work with the Committee to develop practical procedures for assuring that the Committee is kept fully and currently informed of all significant foreign and domestic intelligence activities covered by the new Guidance. We hope these procedures can be designed to keep the administrative burden to the minimum necessary for effective oversight. One approach would be for the Agency to share with the Committee the information and evaluations generated in the course of their internal oversight. A system of retrieval of pertinent documents would minimize the burden for all concerned. If these procedures are satisfactory, it may well be efficient for the Committee to piggyback on them for oversight purposes.

It is most helpful to our oversight responsibility that this Committee has received the assurance that we will be notified promptly of any instance under E.O. 12333, Sec. 2.3(b), where the CIA, within the United States, engages in covert collection of significant foreign intelligence about U.S. persons.

We want to discuss these Executive Branch oversight mechanisms and the Committee's requirements as soon as possible. Please have a representative
